Proof of qualification/further training

Every 3 years proof of regular qualification/further training can be provided by attending the “Peter Hess® Sound Massage Refresh Course” or by further training in the Peter Hess® sound methods.

► Attendance of the “Peter Hess® Sound Massage Refresh Course”

The course comprises 6 hours at a course fee of 100 euros and is led by authorized Peter Hess® sound massage instructors.

It includes giving and receiving a sound massage with reflection for quality assurance. It thus complies with the quality guidelines of the umbrella organization for independent consulting and health-promoting professions, which form a central basis of our certification.

Dates and locations for the Sound Massage Refresh Course can be found on the Peter Hess® Institute website. Please note: Registration is done directly with the respective course instructor!

Please use the form provided as proof of attendance, have it signed by the course/seminar instructor, and submit it to the contact details below.

► Future training in Peter Hess® sound methods

Attendance at seminars that constitute further training in Peter Hess® sound methods is also recognized as proof of qualification.

Please submit (a copy of) your certificate of attendance as proof to the contact details below.
